

Montana Synod Youth and Family Ministry Coordinator

Background: The Montana Synod values children, youth and families as precious gifts of God, and encourages congregations, clusters and organizations to provide ministry that encourages and serves these constituencies. In June 2005, the Montana Synod Assembly voted to affirm the importance of youth and family ministry in its congregations and ministries, and to recommend to the Synod Council the establishment of a part time Montana Synod Youth and Family Ministry Coordinator, for the purpose of coordinating existing ministries within the synod and enhancing communication.

Position Description: The Youth and Family Ministry Coordinator will work to coordinate existing youth and family ministries within the Montana Synod, and to assist congregations and ministries in the strengthening of their youth and family ministries.
