

It's about mission...!

There's no question that we are going through some difficult times – an economic downturn and disagreements over churchwide decisions.

The Montana Synod Council has had to make some hard determinations when it comes to managing our finances and resources. One thing the Council has not done is cut support for ELCA mission and outreach. Our Synod will continue to give thirty nine and one half percent “off-the-top” to churchwide and global ministries. And, our Synod will continue to fund our ministry partners (Campus Ministry, Northern Rockies Institute of Theology, seminaries and colleges, Lutheran Social Services, and more) in the strongest possible way.

Thank you for your generous, on-going, individual and congregational financial support. In this difficult time we rejoice together over those among us who are committed to strong mission support. And, we give thanks to those among us who have gone “the extra mile” by increasing or adding to their mission support. It's about mission...

She was raised in the Christian faith and even active in various youth ministries. Somewhere along the way she began to question, and now says she doesn't believe in God. Yet she keeps coming, still sticking to her disbelief, but also wanting to join the discussions; “What's wrong with religion?” “Why are you a Christian, or not?” “What is the heart of the Jesus movement?” She is not an exception, more and more she is the norm. Campus Ministry is there to listen, give people room to wrestle, help them re-interpret our ancient story in ways that give life in an ever changing world.

God's work. Our hands.

It's about mission...!

There's no question that we are going through some difficult times – an economic downturn and disagreements over churchwide decisions.

The Montana Synod Council has had to make some hard determinations when it comes to managing our finances and resources. One thing the Council has not done is cut support for ELCA mission and outreach. Our Synod will continue to give thirty nine and one half percent “off-the-top” to churchwide and global ministries. And, our Synod will continue to fund our ministry partners (Campus Ministry, Northern Rockies Institute of Theology, seminaries and colleges, Lutheran Social Services, and more) in the strongest possible way.

Thank you for your generous, on-going, individual and congregational financial support. In this difficult time we rejoice together over those among us who are committed to strong mission support. And, we give thanks to those among us who have gone “the extra mile” by increasing or adding to their mission support. It's about mission...

She was raised in the Christian faith and even active in various youth ministries. Somewhere along the way she began to question, and now says she doesn't believe in God. Yet she keeps coming, still sticking to her disbelief, but also wanting to join the discussions; “What's wrong with religion?” “Why are you a Christian, or not?” “What is the heart of the Jesus movement?” She is not an exception, more and more she is the norm. Campus Ministry is there to listen, give people room to wrestle, help them re-interpret our ancient story in ways that give life in an ever changing world.

God's work. Our hands.