

Montana Synod Weekly Announcements March 27, 2023

Emmaus Job Opening

Emmaus Campus Ministry at the University of Montana seeks to call our next pastor! Join us at this unique and vibrant campus ministry where we seek to live our faith through service to others, open and honest dialogue, spiritual grounding, and collaborative peace and justice work. We journey with students as they encounter questions, doubts, and joys during a transformational season in life.

We are accepting applications for a rostered minister, with the position starting as early as August 2023. A successful candidate will lead all aspects of our campus ministry, and also manage three residential houses with up to 15 residents as well as recruit student participants from the larger campus community.

Standing Up Against Hate: An Online Yom HaShoah Panel Discussion
April 17th at 7:00pm on Zoom (join at this link)

Join MJP as we commemorate Yom HaShoah (Holocaust Remembrance Day) and explore strategies for taking action against antisemitism and hate of all kinds.

Panelists:

Rabbi Francine Roston of Glacier Jewish Community
Travis McAdam of Montana Human Rights Network
Isaac Nehring of Montana Youth Action
ADL Pacific Northwest Representative

From a young age, a lot of us received some pretty consistent messaging about how to successfully navigate life, love, and work:

Go with the flow. Avoid making any waves. Don't rock the boat.

These words have the potential for real disaster when they become your identity. At their worst, these are the ingredients for becoming indecisive and conflict-avoidant. If you're someone who absorbed those messages in full and now finds yourself in a leadership position, you may be experiencing frustration, fatigue, and a high degree of burnout.

Here's the bottom line: you're stuck with these old patterns or a lifetime of going through the motions. Not if we can help it! We want to tell you about a course we're hosting. It's called Dare to Lead for Church Leaders, and it's based on the research and teaching of Dr. Brené Brown. Over six immersive sessions, our facilitator, Rev. Sarah Ciavarrri, will apply these Dare to Lead principles to church leadership. In it, you'll learn what authentic leadership looks like, what it's not, and how to build the courage to live out your values in all aspects of your life and ministry.

Click the link below for all the details and a chance to register. Sometimes you have to rock the boat.

Sermon Manuscripts Will Be Available to Use in Congregations Who Do Not Have a Called Pastor

The Manuscripts will be found on the Synod's website and the Manuscript for the upcoming Sunday will be posted by 12 noon on Saturdays. (Maybe before, but at least by 12 noon on Saturdays for the upcoming Sunday. The Sermons will be based on the Revised Common Lectionary.)

LPAs, please feel free to use this resource made possible by the generosity of the pastors in the Synod if it is needed. Pastors, if you would like to be added to the list to provide a Manuscript, please contact me. (It is good order to credit who wrote the sermon and where they serve.)

We are stronger together as the Montana Synod and this is one way that all of us can be a part of equipping one another for the ministry of the Gospel.

Please contact me if you have questions about this in general or contact Colter at cmccarty@montanasynod.org about any technical aspect of this.
