

Montana Synod Weekly Announcements November 27, 2023

Save the date for Giving Tuesday — a global day of giving

On Nov. 28, people all around the world are coming together to tap into the power of human connection, strengthen communities and change our world.

On Giving Tuesday the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America will lift up ELCA Good Gifts as a way for members across the church to show their support for the ministries we share. We have more than 50 charitable gifts to choose from, and each makes a real impact in the world, sharing the love of Christ one goat, water filter or school uniform at a time.

Here's how you can help:

1. Give. On Nov. 28 go to ELCA.org/goodgifts to make your donation.
2. Spread the word. Share what gift(s) you gave and what our churchwide ministries mean to you — then invite your friends, family and congregation members to join you! Check your inbox and social media feeds on the morning of Nov. 28 for ELCA content you can share that day.

God is calling us into the world — together. And with generous, loving hands we can make a difference. Thank you for your leadership and support.

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity 2024

The theme for the 2024 Week of Prayer for Christian Unity will be “You Shall Love the Lord Your God ... and Your Neighbor As Yourself” (Luke 10:27). Resources for the week, January 18-25, 2024 or whenever you choose, have been jointly prepared and published by the Dicastery for Promoting Christian Unity and the World Council of Churches’ Commission on Faith and Order, and they can be downloaded here.

Lutheran Disaster Response

Dear friend,

Thank you for your outpouring of prayers and generosity for our siblings impacted by the conflict in the Holy Land. The humanitarian crisis continues to worsen — almost 70% of Gazan residents are displaced, and resources such as food, water and medical supplies are in short supply. The death toll has far surpassed those of previous conflicts in the region in recent decades.

Gifts to Lutheran Disaster Response have equipped us to respond to this and other disasters whenever and wherever they strike. Gifts designated for "Middle East Crisis" will be restricted to and used in full \(100%\) for those affected by this crisis and others in the region.

I'd like to tell you some of the ways Lutheran Disaster Response already accompanies our partners in the Holy Land. Lutheran Disaster Response supports:

- Augusta Victoria Hospital. The hospital procures medical supplies and provides accommodations for patients and staff unable to return to their homes in Gaza.
- The Evangelical Lutheran Church in Jordan and the Holy Land. The church provides emergency education support for families who have lost income due to the war and are unable to pay school fees.
- ACT Alliance. Through implementing partners Lutheran World Federation and the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Jordan and the Holy Land, ACT Alliance responds to immediate needs for psychosocial support, shelter, household items, public health centers and direct cash assistance, focusing on the Palestinian communities in Gaza, East Jerusalem and the West Bank.

These are just the first steps of what will be a long-term response. Our accompaniment of and solidarity with our partners endures, and we will work together to address other emerging needs. We continue to pray for peace with justice in the region.

I encourage you to visit the ELCA's "Conflict in the Holy Land" resource page, where you'll find worship resources, advocacy opportunities, statements from the ELCA and our partners, and more.

With gratitude,

The Rev. Daniel Rift

When Bad Theology Happens to Good Christians

Law and Gospel. Theology of the Cross versus Theology of Glory. Works-righteousness. The Lutheran theological buzzwords can get overwhelming sometimes. We know the basics of what we believe, but sometimes our domesticated concepts seem to shrivel when faced with some of the wild ideas floating around these days. What's a Lutheran to do when bearing witness to God's grace in a crowded marketplace of ideas?

Led by Julia Seymour, Pastor at Big Timber
Cost $40

3 Contact Hours Continuing Ed

Join the Truth and Healing Movement

The ELCA's Truth and Healing Movement gives the people of this church an opportunity to enlarge their understanding of our colonizing impact on Indigenous people in the past and present.

The movement began this spring and will continue until Advent — and there's still time to get involved! In observance of Native American Heritage Month in November, consider attending a class or browsing articles and resources on Indigenous Ministries and Tribal Relations. Explore learning opportunities.

The Hearth and the Heart: Telling the Story of Your Ministry For the End of the Year Appeal

On Monday, Dec. 4th from 6:30 - 7:30 pm, Rev. Tim Brown, Director for Congregational Stewardship in the ELCA and Director for Evangelical Mission, Rev. Peggy Paugh Leuzinger will offer a Zoom conversation for you to join with others in the Synod to talk about how to make the ask as you approach year end giving in your congregation by telling stories of the impact of your ministry.

While most of our society is singing "It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas," those of us in the stewardship world are singing "It's beginning to look a lot like year-end appeal letters." As well we should! This is the time of year to imagine how you're going to set your mission up with strength to start next year's work!

But instead of simply asking for year-end gifts, let's take a page from the ancient wisdom of our ancestors and tell a story or two of how these gifts have changed lives this year, by God. Get to the heart of the matter, as if you were sharing these stories by that ancient heart of the home: the hearth.

Join in this zoom conversation on End of the Year Stewardship Conversation. Please Register for the event to receive the Zoom link for the event by clicking the link below:
