Words From the Bishop -Deepen faith and witness -Hospitality

"Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by doing so some have entertained angels without knowing it." (Hebrews 13:2)

Hospitality is a faith practice. And while some have entertained angels unawares, in showing hospitality to strangers, most have not. In Luke's Sermon on the Plain, Jesus clearly instructs his followers to go beyond common courtesy, beyond common sense in extending hospitality.

"If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. If you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners

Hospitality is serving the stranger, feeding the hungry, clothing the needy, housing the homeless, visiting the imprisoned. Hospitality is seeing Jesus in the face of the suffering child, the burn on the street, the undocumented immigrant. Hospitality is going way beyond our comfort zone because that's what Jesus did, and that's what Jesus taught. And that's what Jesus lived. And died.

We are regularly reminded of Jesus' radical hospitality in the bread and the wine, his body and blood, given and shed for us. There is no more profound act of hospitality than this-of giving his life for us, and then inviting us to be part of it.

Hospitality means much more than putting a sign in front of our churches that says, "All are welcome." The March (and final) issue of The Lutheran magazine features several stories about what welcome is and isn't. Take a look. Hospitality is deeper than welcome. Hospitality takes off where welcome ends. Hospitality isn't just something we do. It has to be who we are.

Hospitality involves risk-risk of rejection, risk of loss. Mother Emanuel AME Church in South Carolina practices hospitality. When a troubled young man came to their Bible Study, they welcomed him. And when after an hour together he shot and killed the entire group minus a designated witness, they continued their hospitality by publicly forgiving him. It boggles the imagination.

The early church tried to practice hospitality. Sometimes they succeeded, sometimes they didn't. Paul had to admonish the Corinthians for their lack of hospitality:

"For when the time comes to eat, each of you goes ahead with your own supper, and one goes hungry and another becomes drunk. What! Do you not have homes to eat and drink in? Or do you show contempt for the church of God and humiliate those how have nothing?" (I Corinthians 11: 21-22)

The early church in Rome practiced a kind of hospitality to the sick. When epidemics hit the city, everybody who could leave did so. Christians stayed and cared for the sick. Yes, some of them died. But not all of them. And they got a reputation for what they did. And a tradition of caring for the sick has been carried on to this day.

Today our church practices hospitality in many ways. Some congregations are involved in efforts such as Family Promise, providing hospitality to homeless families. For many congregations it has been a stretch of the imagination-could they really invite homeless people to spend a week in their church? And the answer has been yes.

Our church supports Lutheran Immigration and Refugee Service, who have been providing hospitality since 1939. We are working with migrant children from Central America. And we are working with refugees from Syria and other war-torn places across the globe. We do this as a whole church. Yet there are many other ways that individuals and groups within our church engage in hospitality that passes all understanding. Thank you.

Radical hospitality. It is what Jesus taught. It is what Jesus lived. And died. So that we might live for others.

Jessica Crist, Bishop

A reminder: Please send in your Rostered Leader reports to the Bishop ASAP. We have had a great response so far, so keep them coming!

Prison Ministry Partnership

In June 2015, shortly after the Montana Synod of the ELCA celebrated their new partnership with Intermountain, caring for children and families at risk, Bishop Jessica Crist of the ELCA invited Bishop Elain Stanovsky of the United Methodist Church to explore how the Lutherans and Methodists in Montana could work together in prison ministries. The Rev. David Burt, Assistant to Bishop Stanovsky and the Rev. George Karres, Director of Evangelism and Missions for the ELCA were asked to pull together a group from both churches to begin this task. Representatives of the UMC (Rev. David Andersen of Butte and Pastor Wendy Ochs of Billings) and the ELCA (Rev. Joel Skindlov of Big Sandy and Havre and Rev. Melanie Martin-Dent, an ELCA pastor serving in interim ministry at the UMC church in Dillon) began to meet via conference call, getting to know each other and the ministries they are engaged in. YACUMC Vital Missions Coordinator Sally McConnell and Freedom in Chris pastor Rev. Rob Nebalek will joining the next call.

In February, the group adopted the name "Prison Ministry Partnership" and the purpose of exploring our common ministries and sharing opportunities to work together in this area. We intend to communicate information to the people in our respective churches about ways they can engage in and support this work. Three ministries which have been identified as starting points include:

-Freedom in Christ Prison Ministry in which Pastor Rob Nedbalek (ELCA) serves at the Men's State Prison in Deer Lodge, Montana

-Ministries at the Women's State Prison in Billings including monthly worship services

led by members of Billings Evangelical UMC and chaplaincy work by TEEM Candidate Charles Bott

-Healing Communities Montana: a group of people from congregations from various denominations who have participated in training led by Rev. Doug Walker, UMC General Board of Church and Society.

This month we wanted to introduce this group and our work. Next month we will begin offering opportunities to get involved with each ministry. For now, we invite your prayers for our task force and for all engaged in ministry with people involved with the criminal justice system.

You may learn more about all these ministries by going to the Freedom in Christ website: http://www.ficprisonministry.com

Healing Communities website: http://umc-gbcs.org/healing-communities or contacting Wendy Ochs pastorwendyochs@gmail.com or Charles Bott Cajun nomo@yahoo.com.

Report from Wittenberg

The Montana Synod now has a tree in Wittenberg, Germany, as part of the Luthergarten, "500 years of reformation, 500 trees for Wittenberg." Pastor Tonya Eza of Powell, Wyoming, was able to witness the planting of the silver linden tree when she was in Wittenberg for a Lutheran World Federation seminar on the Reformation.

You are invited to help pay for the tree as a special offering. Earth Day, April 20, could be an opportune time. Send your checks to Montana Synod, with "Wittenberg tree" in the memo line.

Loving Your Neighbor by Pastor John Lund

Kudos to the Darby library for going forward with the March 9 talk on Islam by UM scholar Samir Bitar. The rampant rhetoric of fear regarding Muslims immigrants is out of line with our core American value of granting life and liberty to all people. What has made us great is our willingness to give everyone a chance regardless of race, ethnicity, social class, or beliefs. Certainly, we need to denounce and fight ISIS, and we need protection from their attacks. It is reasonable to be concerned about screening immigrants from a war-torn nation. But to judge all Muslims because of ISIS is unfair. The claim that Islam is at war with Christianity or with the US and that all Muslims are out to get us is plain wrong.

For those of us who are Christian, we would do well to look first at the log in our own eye. We have to acknowledge that many Christians justified the killing of native peoples by calling them "heathens" and "savages." Later, Christians sent Native children to boarding schools so they could be "Christianized" and re-cultured. Christians also justified slavery, and many later fought against civil rights for Blacks and all people of color. European Christians perpetuated stereotypes and discrimination against Jews, which allowed the rise of Nazi hatred and the Holocaust. Many Christians fought against the right of women to vote, and some still believe that women should be subject to men and silent outside their homes. Even today, Christians fight the hardest against civil rights for people in the LGBTQ community. If the atrocities of some Christians were used to judge all of us, we'd be lucky to have any neighbors at all.

The truth is that there are an estimated 3.3 million Muslims in this country, and many have been here for decades. Most work hard as teachers, business owners, laborers, doctors, and in other professions, and are integrated into American culture and life. They wage peace through daily prayer, compassion, care for their neighbor, and devotion to the same God that Christians and Jews worship. They honor Moses and Jesus as Major Prophets and have great respect for the Bible. I have known many Muslims in my lifetime and feel fortunate to have some as friends. They are among the most genuine, gracious, giving and humorous people I know. In all of our major cities, Imams and Muslim leaders work with Christian, Jewish and other faith leaders to foster relationships, peace and unity among the world religions. Time after time, when Christians actually meet Muslims and get to know them and share a meal and conversation, relationships are formed, attitudes and perceptions are changed, and the whole community is enriched for the better. Thank God we have different languages, music, food, skin colors, traditions and beliefs! Because of that we learn and grow and become fuller human beings when we are together.

Yes, there are horrible things being done by some Muslims who manipulate Islam and the Quran to justify their own ideology of terror and control. Yes, some Muslims believe that women should obey their husbands and have fewer rights than men. Yes, some Muslims are fundamentalist and practice horrific forms of violent retribution. And this is true for some Christians as well. We see evidence of this today in KKK rallies, mass shootings and vandalism of Black churches and abortion clinics, and the high rate of domestic violence against women.

The greater truth is that the huge majority of the estimated 1.7 billion Muslims and 2.4 billion Christians in the world are people who love God and neighbor, care for those in need, and seek peace in our world.

As Christians, we are called not only to love the neighbors who are similar to us, but to also love those who are different and even our enemies. Our world is already filled with fear, lies, hatred, and violence. We can do much better by waging peace, forming relationships, listening to each other, sharing life, and expecting the best from each other. That is exactly what a Galilean Jew did 2000 years ago amid times of great fear, much like today. Perhaps we can follow his lead.

-Pastor John Lund is Campus Pastor at the University of Montana

Bolivian Textiles

by Susan Leaverton

Textiles and fibers surround us constantly as an integral part of life. Our synod women's group of ten intrepid travelers immersed ourselves in Bolivian culture last August, visually feasting on sights that truly exemplify the connections of fabric to daily life for many women of this vibrant country. Clothing and textile arts of Bolivia excel in color, pattern and craftsmanship. Exotic llama and alpaca fibers are the norm for clothing construction.

Money Leadership:

Your Life with Money

Money - how do we view and use it in our lives? What is the relationship between money and our Christian faith? Do we feel comfortable in our dealings with money, or does the topic make us nervous?

Money Leadership: Your Life with Money - is a sixweek SELECT online learning course that will help us examine the attitudes and behaviors we have about money as Christians - and to become more comfortable and confident in thinking about and discussing this. Pastor George Karres, Director for Evangelical Mission of the Montana Synod, will be the facilitator.

Who should take this course? Pastors, as stewardship leaders in their congregations, will especially benefit from this - but LPAs, congregation treasurers, stewardship committee members, or anyone who would like to grow in their understanding of how Christians are called to view and use money in their lives are also encouraged to participate as well!

For further information, click HERE or contact George Karres at 406-453-1461 or by email at gkarres@montanasynod.org.

Comprehensive Ministry Review

How is your congregation doing? Is it thriving and are its members filled with a sense of enthusiasm for doing God's work? Or is it just "going through the motions" as things seem to stay the same or decline?

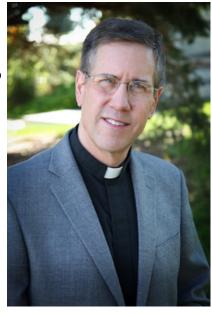

Perhaps your congregation could benefit from a "Check-up" called a Comprehensive Ministry Review. This is a process offered by the Montana Synod that examines a congregation's health and ministry from a number of different perspectives - such as its pastor; lay leaders; looking at and listening to the community where it is located and serves; its facilities; history and trends, etc.

This process - led by a "Synod Review Team" consisting of the Director for Evangelical Mission and other MT Synod leaders - can help a congregation to gain new insights and also a renewed understanding of its purpose and mission for the context where it is located.

To learn more about the Comprehensive Ministry Review process and discern whether this might perhaps be for your congregation, contact Pastor George Karres - Director for Evangelical Mission - at 406-453-1461 or by email at gkarres@montanasynod.org.

Health Coverage Tax information

This year, for the first time, you'll need to report health coverage when you file your federal income tax return, or potentially pay a financial penalty (unless you had Medicare as your primary coverage). This new requirement is part of the Affordable Care Act (ACA); you may have heard it called the "individual mandate."

Portico is here to help. We're mailing you a tax form that serves as proof of health coverage. Here's what to do:

- Watch the mail for Internal Revenue Service Form 1095-B, Health Coverage. It shows the months that you and any covered family members had ELCA-Primary health benefits in 2015.
- Keep Form 1095-B for your records. You don't need to submit it with your 2015 tax return.
- Check a box on your 2015 tax return to indicate you had coverage.

If you have any questions, call Portico at 800.352.2876. They are there to help you navigate an ever-changing health care landscape, so you can stay focused on your ministry.800.352.2876

New LPA Class - Fall 2016

2016-2018 Lay Pastoral Associate Class Nominations

Now is the time to consider lifting up individuals with the gifts and skills for the Montana Synod Lay Pastoral Associate program (LPA). The next class will begin in October 2016, but now is the time to be educating those in the congregation about the LPA program, and seeking their commitment.

The congregational meeting is a good opportunity to nominate and support those in your congregation who have the desire and skills to serve as an LPA in the Montana Synod. At this annual meeting the congregation can pray for and, with the guidance of the pastor, recommend individuals to the Bishop for approval.

For more information, go to the Montana Synod website or call Pr. Jason Asselstine, Associate to the Bishop.

Interested in becoming an LPA?

- 1. Talk to your church pastor. Talk about what it means to fill in for him or her and the traits it takes to provide pastoral leadership (albeit, temporary).
- 2. If your church does not have a pastor, feel free to contact our office. We'll put you in touch with someone who can shed some light on the role of an LPA.
- 3. Have your church pastor contact Bishop Crist or Rev. Jason Asselstine, Assoc. to the Bishop via email or phone call. This contact and conversation will be your pastor's recommendation for your participation in the MT Synod LPA program.

After approval from the Bishop (to enter the program), please ensure you have the following items to our Synod office at least 3 weeks prior to the class start date (our staff admin person will send you the paperwork to begin the process):

- 1. Completed biographical, information sheet.
- 2. Initiation of a required background check
- 3. First year's payment of $200 via check made out to "MT Synod" with "LPA training program" in the check's memo section. This can also be brought with you to the 1st group retreat.

Still have questions? Call our Synod office at 406-453-1461

The Luther 5

Lutherans and Catholics-what's the deal? 499 years ago the Church split-Lutherans went one way, and Catholics another. It was not an amicable parting of the ways. The stakes were high, and the religious issues were all tangled up with political issues. Mutual condemnations flew back and forth. Wars broke out. The lines were drawn between Protestant and Catholic.

And now, the Pope is coming to the 500th Anniversary of the beginning of the Reformation. Finnish Lutherans were able to receive communion at the Vatican, and the ELCA Churchwide Assembly will receive a document of agreement between Lutherans and Catholics outline 32 major area of agreement. What's the deal? Go to the Luther 500 page for a downloadable study on Lutherans and Catholics, and share it with your congregation, or with an ecumenical group.

Click here for the full brief

The Luther 5

The Reformation 500 Task Force is looking for people to serve with our group. The only requirement is an interest in Reformation history and how the church is continually reforming. Many of our meetings are held via Google Hangouts so that very little lengthy travel is necessary, also helping to fulfill the first benchmark of the Montana Synod, "Meet the future boldly." If you would like to join our fun group, please contact Rev. Tonya Eza.

In conjunction with the Montana Synod's third strategic benchmark, "Deepen faith and witness," the 2016 Synod Assembly and Theological Conference theme will be the 500th Anniversary of the Reformation. Yes, it's a year early, but this is part of how we meet the future boldly, so that when 2017 comes along, we will all be prepared! In conjunction with the Synod Assembly, the Reformation 500 Task Force is sponsoring a Reformation stole and banner contest. We invite the member congregations of the Montana Synod to bring original stoles and/or banners with them to the Synod Assembly in June. Following are the rules that we ask you to follow:

If you are making a stole:

- Stoles must be able to be worn while presiding over worship, and should be able to withstand 10 worship services (feel free to experiment with materials!).
- Stoles should be between 3" and 6" wide at the shoulder, and between 48" and 54" long.
  - o Be sure also to consider weight of stole and range of motion for the pastor in your design.

Stoles need to be appropriate for a liturgically red service

o Red doesn't need to be the only color in the stole, but it should play a prominent role in the color palette of the stole.

 The stole should be your own original design - it is fine to use established patterns (provided they are not copy-written) as long as they are put together in your own way.

If you are submitting a banner:

- Banners should be appropriate for display in a worship context
  - o The size of the banner should be able to fit comfortably within the dimensions of your sanctuary.
- Banners should be of an original design. You may use established patterns (provided they are not copy-written) as long as they are put together in your own way.

Please bring the stoles and banners with you to the Synod Assembly, and they will be displayed in a place where everyone can see. Assembly attendees will vote on their favorites.

Questions? Please contact Rev. Tonya Eza, chair of the Reformation 500 Task Force, or any of the other members of the group.
