Elections at the 2017 Montana Synod Assembly

The Synod Nominating Committee, by Synod Constitution, is appointed by the Synod Council. This year's chair is John Sheppard. The Nominating Committee receives nominations for open positions, and presents a slate of candidates to the assembly for election. The nominating committee is instructed by the Synod Council to present no more than two candidates for each position. Therefore, not all nominations that reach the nominating committee will be placed on the ballot. Nominations may be made from the floor (nominees must be contacted prior to their nomination). The nominating committee is also instructed to take into consideration geographical distribution (region, congregation, etc.), and other constitutionally mandated matters of balance. Deacons and Lay Pastoral Associates (LPAs) are considered lay persons.
