FIC will be present at the upcoming Synod Assembly in Billings!! We will have a display table which will be staffed and there will be the yummy treats you have come to know and expect available. Stop by and say hi, check out some of our new stuff, and talk to staff about the ministry!

We will also be hosting a break-out session talking about Freedom in Christ and prison ministry. A special guest will be at the session to talk about his experiences as a participant of Freedom in Christ while incarcerated at Montana State Prison. We will also have a short devotion/study by Pastor Rob. Pastor Kris Mitzman, our board chair will talk about our vision for the possibilities of expanding to the Women’s Prison in Billings. We invite you to attend and hear what we are about and what we envision for the future.

A new look. A new plan for our future. A renewed energy. We are excited to share all this with you and look forward to seeing you at the Montana Synod Assembly in Billings.
